CHOSEN MEN!

TOWNSHIP CAUCUSES NAME THEIR CANDIDATES.

WILLIAM HODGINS HEADS THE REPUBLICAN TICKET IN BROCKWAY

WHILE A. W. FERGUSON IS THE FIRST MAN ON THE UNION TICKET.

Caucuses Largely Attended and Full of Interest.

Saturday morning last one would have thought it was "town meeting" for there was a large crowd from every section of the township in the village and all the politicians were on the move. The cause of all this was a Republican caucus called for 2:30 o'clock p. m. to be held in the Village Hall.

The caucus was called to order by Michael Sheehy, chairman of the Republican township committee. Harvey Tappan was elected chairman; J. A. Menzies, secretary; James McCall, Bert McDonald and Wm. Hyde, tellers; T. H. Parkinson and Wm. Bidleman, challengers.

Three candidates were in the race for supervisor—Wm. Hodgins, George Middleton and W. A. Cavanagh. The total vote was 245, and Hodgins receiving a majority of the votes cast was declared the nominee. There was no great amount of strife over the balance of the ticket.

Below is the result:—
Supervisor—William Hodgins.
Clerk—Duncan A. McKeith.
Treasurer—Robert Carson.
Commissioner of Highways—Joseph Williams.

Justice of the Peace, (full term)—James Brown.
School Inspector—Norman B. Herbert.

Member of Board of Review—Michael Sheehy.
Constables—Wallace W. Adams, David Brown, John D. Williams, George Shannon.

The township committee elected for the ensuing year is composed of Harvey Tappan, James Wallace and Joseph Williams.

The Union Township Caucuses which was held in Village Hall, Yale, on Monday afternoon was called to order by W. V. Andrae. James E. Lutz was elected chairman; E. R. Beecher, secretary; John H. Merrill and H. E. Beard tellers.

The ticket nominated is as follows:—
Supervisor—Alexander W. Ferguson.
Clerk—William A. Cavanagh.
Treasurer—Robert Carson.
Commissioner of Highways—Geo. Middleton.

Justice of the Peace full term—Jas. Hisey.
School Inspector—William H. Mann.
Member of Board of Review—John H. Merrill.

Constables—John E. Brown, Joel Smades, Fred Jolly, Benjamin P. Lane. George Middleton on being informed that he had been nominated for Commissioner of Highways gave a letter refusing to allow his name to appear on the ticket, but finally he has consented and his name will appear on the ballot.

The People's caucus failed to materialize.

GREENWOOD TOWNSHIP.

Two tickets have been nominated in Greenwood township—Republican and Union. The Republicans placed in nomination:—

Supervisor—George Oatman.
Clerk—John T. Bonser.
Treasurer—John Collins.
The Union ticket is made up as follows:—

Supervisor—George Zuelch.
Clerk—John T. Bonser.
Treasurer—John Collins.
Justice—Nicholas Furlong.
Commissioner of Highways—Charles Hayes.

SPEAKER TOWNSHIP.

In this township two caucuses are held and Thomas Grimes is placed at the head of both tickets. The township caucus held at the town hall nominated the following:

Supervisor—Thomas Grimes.
Clerk—Andrew Moore.
Treasurer—Charles F. Sloat.
Justice—William Sisco.
Commissioner of Highways—Joseph Kerr.

Drain Commissioner—Charles Weston.
Member of Board of Review—George Tenneswood.

School Inspector—Myron Groat.
A Citizens caucus was held at Melvin and the above ticket was nominated with the exception of Will Redhouse for treasurer and W. E. Kettlewell for justice of the peace.

LYNN TOWNSHIP.

Two caucuses were held in Lynn township and both tickets are the same with the exception of the two principal officers, supervisor and clerk, and constables. The township ticket is as follows:—

Supervisor—Christian Danielson.
Clerk—Ensley Brown.
Treasurer—John Dudley.
Highway Commissioner—S. P. Murphy.

Justice of the Peace—Jas. Brown.

School Inspector—A. Curry, Jr.
Member Board of Review—W. Bull-ock.

The Union ticket is headed by Elston Huffman, supervisor; Thos. Shutt, clerk.

SUGAR BEETS.

A Remarkable Growth on the Farm of Wm. Mason in Kenoskee.

The state experiment station has just made an analysis of samples of sugar beets grown by Wm. Mason on his farm in Kenoskee township, which shows them to contain 26.96 per cent of sugar. This is a most remarkable showing considering the fact that the average is about 13 to 14 per cent. Mr. Mason devoted one and an eighth acres to sugar beets last year producing nearly 22 tons to the acre. The samples analyzed lay in a pit until a short time ago, and the state chemist thinks possibly the beets lost in weight to some extent between the time of digging and the time of analysis. Mr. Mason is considering the advisability of replanting what he has left of his crop for the purpose of getting the seed.—Port Huron Times.

The Deacon.

"The Deacon," as played by local talent on Wednesday evening in Central Hall was very good and appreciated probably as much as when presented before. The characters were all taken by the same ones with the exception of three. The deacon, the part taken by Wallace Ballentine, was acted excellently well. His passion for lemonade "with a stick in it" was well put on. Mrs. Thornton, the deacon's sister-in-law, was ably personated by Mrs. H. E. Beard. Marcia Beecher filled the position of Daisy admirably. The character of George Graef was taken by J. M. Palmer who did exceedingly well. Bertha Beecher, who acted Miss Amelia, was perfect in the role of the old maid and created plenty of merriment. The part of Helen, Mrs. Thornton's daughter, was nicely played by Mertie Kelley. Mrs. Jardine, as Mrs. Darrah, is good in tragedy and performed her part nobly. Her little daughter Nellie was personated by Ina Palmer. A. M. Johnson, as George Darrah, seems thoroughly at home on the stage, and Glen Ballentine as James Reed, Pedro and officer, for an amateur, acted his three parts well. A. W. Ferguson makes a splendid looking parson, but his actions belie his looks as his courage dwindles to nothing when confronted by danger. Billy, the deacon's boy, was presented by Charlie Brown. Roars of laughter followed his every appearance, while the cuteness, shrewdness and remarkable ability of Pete, the colored servant brought the house down. Bert Jardine was Pete and no one could have bettered the part.

Miss Beecher, Mrs. Jardine and Wallace Ballentine were none of them scarcely able to be present on account of sickness and they are entitled to much praise for the efforts they must have put forth. The male quartette and the string band took up the time between acts with bright songs and inspiring strains. The net proceeds of the evening amounted to $20 which will go towards paying for the new carpets to be placed in Masonic hall.
